THIRTY YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

THE BREVITY BASKET.
Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.
The German Capital Hill Building association, No. 4, has elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: Edward Kubel, president; Emil Jousher, vice president; Charles Berner, secretary, and Frederick W. Rest, treasurer.
The board of directors is as follows: Stephen Helmuth, Joseph Howard, E. J. Sachs, Ernst Eothorst, Leopold Moeller, Henry Caspari, Thomas Lotz, and Conrad Kiefer.

A marble bust of Dr. Joseph M. Toner, donor of the collection of books known as the Toner collection to the national library, has been placed in the library at the Capitol. It occupies a space in the north wing near one of the alcoves devoted to the Toner collection.
The bust was ordered by the joint committee on the library in last congress, in recognition of the liberal and public-spirited gift of a large private library to the nation. It was executed by Mr. J. Q. A. Ward, and is slightly above life size.

James H. Jones, a white boy, about 17 years of age, was charged in the police court yesterday morning with stealing a silver watch from Mr. Charles Pelham's office, where he was employed. Mr. Pelham said that the boy's mother was a poor woman, and the boy was rather young, and the watch was an old one, and not worth more than $1.50, and he would ask the court to be as lenient as possible with him. The court gave the boy a warning, and friendly advice, and took his personal bonds.

At a meeting held Monday evening by the members of the Congress Street Methodist Protestant church Joseph Libbey and W. T.
Farr were elected delegates and Mr. Barnes and W. K. Grimes as alternates to represent Congress Street and Mount Pleasant Methodist Protestant churches at the Maryland annual conference, to be held at Pocomoke City, Md., March 12. Theodore Barnes, Benjamin Carr, Charles D. Welch, W. H. Whistley, B. K. Giddman, and R. A. Young were elected stewards, and Henry Weaver, Charles A. Upperman, Joseph Libbey, W. E. Bell, George A. Birch, John E. Cox, and James Martin trustees.

MANY London ladies crop their hair short and wear an almost entire wig, and consequently catch cold more frequently than their American cousins, but of course they all use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Base Ball.
Manager Hollingshead, of the Washingtons, has returned from Cincinnati, where he went to attend the meeting of the schedule committee of the American association. He stopped at Pittsburgh on his way back, and secured from Secretary McKnight and the directors of the Allegheny club the release of Mr.
Robert M. Barr, one of their pitchers, who had signed a contract with them for this season. Mr. Barr is a Washington boy, and beside being one of the most popular players in the profession, is an excellent pitcher, batter, and fielder.

His accession to the ranks of the Washingtons strengthens their team a great deal.
His services have been much sought for, and either the Metropolitan or St. Louis clubs would have him had not the Alleghenies Washington got hold of him first. This latest addition will give them three batteries —Barr, Trumbull, and Hamill, pitchers, and Humphries, Morgan, and Beach, catchers.
Morgan played with the Alleghenies last season, and Barr says he was the best catcher who ever stood in front of him. He has batted against Trumbull, and speaks of him as a great pitcher, with more than the usual speed and a good headwork. Trumbull pitched against the Alleghenies last year when they were defeated by the Indianapolis club, and but four hits were made on his pitching.

More Confidence Games.

Yesterday morning Thomas Slack, of Harris Corners, Del., was met by a stranger near the Baltimore and Potomac depot, who informed him that he was a contractor on his way to Atlanta, Ga., where he had some money to pay, and had just learned that a package had come for him by Adams express marked "C. O. D.," and he required $38 more than he had to get it, and he would put up a check for $750 for the loan until he could see his friends. Mr. Slack was suspicious, but at that point another stranger came up and said he was of the express company, and told the other stranger of the package. Mr.
Slack passed over the $38 and took the check, and still holds it. Shortly afterward he came to the conclusion that he was rubbed, and called upon Oliver Lamb, but the man had disappeared. One of the men is about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches in height, with full sandy whiskers, attired in dark clothes, and black derby. The other is about 5 feet 5 inches in height, of rather stout build, and with gray side whiskers.

A CARD.—We will continue our great semi-annual sale of dry goods during this week only.
Ten pieces of fine colored silk, $1.25.
Prices reduced throughout the store. W. W. Burdette & Co., 928 Seventh Street and 706 K Street northwest.

Peter Washington's Funeral.
The funeral of Peter Washington, the victim of the Baltimore and Potomac depot homicide last Friday, took place from the Virginia avenue Baptist church, of which he was a member, yesterday. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Laws, who was assisted by Revs. William Gibbons, J. A. Mulligan, Henry Baller, T. S. Robinson, and Adams Greene. About 300 persons attended the services. As the family of the deceased was very poor, the amount of $20.58 was collected and presented to them to assist in the burial. Interment was had at the Young Men's burial ground.

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" I always becomes the favorite remedy of those who try it. It is a specific for all female "weaknesses," and derangements, bringing strength to the limbs and back and color to the face. Of all drugs, it is the best.

The Rain Postpones a Wedding.
The rain last Sunday cheated a young colored man residing in Blagden's alley of his bride. He had prepared a bridal dinner, and a number of invited guests were present.
The prospective groom, attired in a full dress suit, summoned a carriage and drove to the house of his intended. She met him at the door in a calico wrapper with the remark, "Well, it's raining, and I guess I won't go with you." The wedding did not take place, but the dinner was eaten by the guests and the disappointed groom.

EMIGRANTS and travelers will find in Ayer's Sarsaparilla an efficient cure for eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, &c., that break out on the skin—the effects of disorder in the blood caused by unwholesome food and impure blood. It is the best medicine for everyone in the spring.

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to Nelson T. Burks and Alice Porter, Elberton A. Shands, of Harrisonburg, Va., and Annie C. Hoover, of Staunton, Va.; John M. Routh, of this city, and Mary Ann Routh, of Baltimore, Md.; Patrick Melroe and Mary Donohue, Charles D. Knight, of this city, and Jennie Hannum, of Ohio; Starr H. Wood, of Albany, N. Y., and Lizzie F. Hall.

Lucas Acquitted.
Thomas Lucas was arraigned in the criminal court yesterday indicted on the charge of assaulting Officer Hinkle on the night of the twenty-fifth of November last while the officer was attempting to force the entrance of the premises. The principal witnesses were Officer Hinkle, Mr. Howard G. Clappett, and Dr. William H. Hale. After hearing of the testimony he was acquitted.

WELLS MAY-APPLE (LIVER) PILLS. 10c. and 25c.

Will's Filed.

The last will of William Gibson, of Georgetown, was filed yesterday. He leaves his property to his wife and children, and ap-ports his wife, Jane Gibson, executrix.
The will of Conway Robinson was also filed.
He makes a bequest to his children, and leaves the balance of his property to his wife. Lee and Conway Robinson, his sons, are appointed executors.

Election of Officers.
The Romero Valley Silver Mining company elected the following trustees yesterday: J.
T. Stevens, William F. Mattingly, Charles S.
Bradley, H. E. Davis, A. C. Bradley, John W. Carson, James D. Cleary, S. T. Carpenter, and John M. Comstock.
